We would like to thank Noelle Smith at Graphicstudio, who helped us to find the images that are including in this edition. Graphicstudio is a university-based workshop engaged in a unique experiment in art and education. Graphicstudio's philosophy of providing artists with the freedom to experiment and pursue new directions to advance their practice, matched with an exceptionally talented faculty and staff, has attracted world-renowned contemporary artists to the University of South Florida (USF) campus in Tampa. Their collaborative projects have produced print editions and multiples at the forefront of contemporary art.
